MANDATORY CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 3 years.

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of supervised release is mandatory for possession of a controlled substance. DRUG TESTING IS WAIVED.

Pursuant to Public Law 108-405, Revised DNA Collection Requirements Under the Justice for All Act of 2004, the defendant shall submit to DNA collection while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, or at the direction of the U.S. Probation Office.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not use or possess a firearm, ammunition, dangerous weapons or destructive device. Supervised release shall be revoked for possession of a firearm.

The defendant shall make special assessment, fine and restitution payments as ordered by the Court and is required to notify the Court, through the Probation Office, of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to meet these monetary obligations.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this Court (set forth on the following page). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall not incur any new debt or credit without permission of the U.S. Probation Officer.

The defendant shall provide full financial disclosure to the U.S. Probation Officer, including detailed documentation of income and expenses.

The defendant shall cooperate with the Internal Revue Service and file tax returns timely and lawfully, and pay any back taxes, penalties and interest as determined by the Internal Revenue Service.
